ALL SORTS.

Go to Joe Platt's if you want something new in neck wear.

Officer Nash, of Reno, is reported as getting along nicely.

As a matter of fact Carson and Reno are thriving little towns and always will be.

The Capitol Band appeared Sunday and waffled a few tunes up the main street, drawing quite a crowd.

The Cornerer's jury at Reno returned a verdict that Louis Ortiz came to his death at the hands of parties unknown.

The sewer on Second street is settling and needs looking after. There is a hole near the eastern near the old Warren engine house that should be filled up.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Davis desire to thank their host of friends who made the 43rd anniversary of a happy wedded life such a thorough success.

Chinatown at Sacramento was burned down on Saturday. Jimmie Benton says when he left Sacramento there were $24,000 worth of buildings destroyed and the fire still raging.

J. Warren Montgomery, who figured as a principal in the double tragedy at Woodland, is said to be a forger and the murderer of Mae Williams instead of an assistant in a supposed suicide.

At Reno a man used 10,000 gallons of water on his lawn last year. We have often wondered what became of all the water in Reno. Nobody, of course, ever suspected the male population of drinking it.

A well-known Carson sport offers to bet $500 that Lyman Frisbie can beat any man in the State one mile, provided that a rattlesnake be turned loose behind Frisbie when the word "go" is given. The sport wants a dead thing.

A Carson man calculates that a mother in talking to her infant child speaks 35,000 words a day. Now let him calculate how many words a day the mother talks to the grown-up child's husband during his first year of married life—if he can.

Owing to failing health, the Washoe Nurseries with stock and fixtures, also a fine assortment of fruit, shade and ornamental trees, shrubbery, etc., for sale at a reasonable price. For further particulars address Mrs. R. P. M. Kelly Box 1, Reno, Nev. s16m

Drop into Jake Muller's and see the butter from Carson Valley's creamery. Mr. Kaupisch has stamped his butter with a California stamp but will secure a Nevada die as soon as possible. Mr. Muller also has a sample of the sediment that is extracted from the cream by a patent process.

A tired gentleman dropped his weary form upon the thin row of grass next the Capitol fence opposite the APPEAL office yesterday and slumbered gently. Officer Jack Gray woke him up and led him to a burglar proof room containing a nice bed and an old style wicker work window, through which filtered the light of a summer day.

The Directors of the Nevada State Fair have arranged for a free for all race for trotters and pacers for a purse of $1,200 to take place during the week, in which the following entries have been made: Frank M., Turk Frank, Our Dick (Senator Evan Williams' horse), Gold Medal and Hummer. Those who fail to see this race will miss seeing the fastest heats ever made in this State.

Warning!!!

All toughs who understand the sign language should have taken a look at the body of Ortiz, recently lynched in Reno. The customary mob of pimps, curs and tin-horn gamblers, had better fight shy of Carson as we don't want them here. Sheriff Botsford wishes them all to understand that any of this class without legitimate means of support will be chucked into the thinking tank.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Ralph B. Stanley Meets His Death at the Bat.

One of the saddest accidents of the national game occurred at the Silver State grounds, Sunday afternoon about 4 p. m.

Ralph B. Stanley, a young man who for several months has been following the trade of printing in Carson, was interested in a friendly game of ball between the local clubs. The ninth inning had been reached and Stanley went to the bat. All through the day Stanley had been feeling badly and showed little strength.

Chas. A. Ertle was in the pitcher's box, and already had pitched two strikes which had not been hit. Just before pitching the third, Ertle remarked: "I'll pitch this strike straight and easy," which he did. As the ball came toward the home plate, Stanley leaned his head slightly forward, supposedly to get in readiness to strike and received it on the left side of the neck. The instant he was struck he dropped partly to the ground in a dazed condition. Henry Land who stood near inquired, "Why don't you run," Stanley replied, "You run for me," and taking three steps to the left, fell forward upon his face, unconscious, dying almost immediately.

The club gathered around the prostrate form, but nothing could be done. A bier was secured and a procession of saddened faces started down the street.

The ninth awakened at the game was stilled and as the contending clubs mixed around the litter, relieving each other from time to time it started the tears in many eyes. Before they reached the house, Mrs. Pete Taylor, whose father, W. R. Campbell, had adopted Ralph when seven years old, came hurrying up the street. The scene was most pitiful as she had learned to love and guide this boy as his own mother. Under her careful hand he had grown up and her affection bore fruit. He loved her as strongly in return. Sympathetic arms of her own sex bore here up and encouraged the grief stricken foster sister till the shock had passed.

Ralph Stanley had a disposition that was a credit to any human, either whistling or singing always. His constitution was not strong, but he never allowed his frailness to trouble others.

As an apprentice to the printing office he made an extra effort to give satisfaction and never was ill natured among the boys. He was an especial favorite and the day of his death will never be forgotten.

The Coroner's Jury investigated the case, examined witnesses and brought in a verdict to the effect that he met his death as above stated and exonerated all parties connected with the same.

The funeral was held from the home and was well attended. The coffin was covered with flowers contributed by friends of deceased. In the center rested an empty floral compositors stick from the printers of Carson made by Mrs. Gage and Mrs. Maish. The sympathy of the community is with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor who have lost almost a son.

Carson Day.

As has been the custom for several years, Carson proposes to shut up shop one day and attend the Reno Fair en masse. And as has also been the custom, Reno will reciprocate next week, and send over a big crowd to the District Fair.

It has been suggested that if the State Fair Directors can be persuaded to appoint Friday as the day for the great pacing race mentioned in another column, that day will be as good as any on which Carson could show her good will and pretty girls to the Reno people. As there will be no military display this year and as the merchants of Carson must have time to inform customers of the intended closing, the latter part of the week would be especially convenient.

Everybody should go, along with the band, and give the State Fair a big boost.

The Agricultural Ball.

Through a blunder of the APPEAL job office the tickets for the agricultural ball at the Opera House, Fair week, were printed "given by the Carson ladies." The truth is that the Empire ladies first suggested the dance and are among the hardest workers for the ball's success. The tickets should read "given by the ladies of Ormsby county."—Tribune.

Wrong, as usual. The tickets were printed according to the copy furnished by Secretary Noteware, but should not have been, "Given by the ladies of Ormsby county," as the ball is in the hands of the regular Directors, the Lady Directors, who were selected from the three counties comprising the district, merely furnishing the supper, and all are materially assisting in getting up a sumptuous spread. Mrs. D. A. Bender suggested the idea.

Wabuska Fair.

Don't forget the Lyon County Fair at Wabuska on the 7th, 8th and 9th. The Directors always pay liberal premiums to people who make exhibits and at their fairs some of the best stock on the Pacific Coast can be seen. The race track is a good one and some speedy flyers will be in attendance. People that go to Wabuska feel at home the moment they step off the train. If you want to see a fair that is run strictly on its merits you'll find one at Wabuska. Remember the 7th, 8th and 9th of October.

In the midst of the excitement in business and social life throughout the country during the last three years a cat in Carson has raised a family of sixty-seven, sixty-six of which have fallen a prey to the insidious brickbat. If in any one thinks this is not so, they can ask Dave Harris, the barber.

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely in your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
